

To sell or rent out his part of the farm
I never heard him say any such thing & you by ^{plf} did you ever here of James J. Dickenson say to John Dickenson, devise, that if John C.
Dickenson stayed on the farm that he could not nor would not live on the farm if John C.
Dickenson did,

I heard James J. Dickenson say that if John C. Dickenson came hear that he would not stay for they could not live together that was in the year 1869.
& you did you send for your brother James Robinson to come into a room to talk to your husband about making a will.

I dont remember whether I sent for brother or not We wear all three to gether and Brother James said that when you make a will you ought to appoint an agent to take care of me and Robert for we could not take care of ^{the} pla^s and John Dickenson did maid no answer, James Robson said that if James J. Dickenson would not except the agency for me and Robert that he had better point one of Sancy Grays boys,

I question did you ask your brother to talk to your husband on the subject of making his will.

I dont remember whether I did or not

The depositions of Sancy, Dickenson taken at the house of James J. Dickenson in Castle Woods in Russell County Va on the 6th day of April 1872 pursuant to an ad-journment from the Law Office of Wm H. Burns in Lebanon Va to be read as evidence in the suit in Chancery in the Russell circuit court wherein John C. Dick-enson is plf, and Sancy Dickenson & others are depts. The deponent Sancy Dickenson deposeth and saith

I question first by plaintiff do you recollect a conversation between yourself John C. Dickenson and John Dickenson the devise about a pile of plank and building a house, answered, yes on Sabath they were all gone to church but me and my husband and John C. Dickson came home and went in the Room and ^{as} I came in ^{the} Room John C. Dickson went out and I asked my husband ^{what} he wanted and he said that John C. Dickson an old house that stood in the yard to ^{be} moved ^{it} back of the peach orchard and my husband said that John C. Dickson said that he was going to git married and I said to him that there was not one word of it so I said ^{wait until} until he gets married and he may have three houses and my husband said that he
