

As J. K. has no-ite feeling agane the I am of a forgive spirit further he suith not

Rubin <sup>his</sup> Dickenson the further taking of <sup>depositions</sup> are Adjourned from this place to Nancey B Gray, at which place
I will commence taking, <sup>deposi</sup> tions in this cause again on the 2d day of January 1873, Between the hours of Ten o'clock in the morning and twelve o'clock of that day.

By Ch. Ketron J. P., January the 2d 1873 Then met at the house of Nancey B Gray in the county of Russell, and resumed the taking of depositions to be read in the cause named in the caption, between the hours of 10 Am & 12 o'clock of said day, The deponent Nancey B. Gray of lawful age, and first being duly sworn, deposes and saith.

Question By the pf. Are you a daughter of Fanney Dickenson & John Dickenson the decant If you are state your age, and how long you lived with your parents.

(A) By reputation I am, I was sixteen year old when I was married had lived with thut I was married I was married in Augt 1836
Do you know, whether or not, your mother Fanney Dickenson, possessed more controll over your fathers, mind, and feelings, than